HoE and HR to check on-call IFRC sends HoE and Int HR on ETF held to decide whether to team availability, also liaising call phone/ email informing confirm ERU availability with IFRC with relevant regional and and potential funding options them an ERU may be required technical teams on call HR Adviser and HR Logistics team preare kit HoE confirms with IFRC that Assistant put the team on requirements for ERU team ERU is available standby IFRC then inform all PNS who IFRC Senior Officer, Global IFRC receives all offers from NS has been given the green light Surge Capacity confirms and makes selection for deployment deployment in writing HR team mobilise for deployment, contacting the Logistics team mobilise kit ERU briefed at UKO team and organise their transport to UKO for briefing If the ERU is deployed to an emergency within a region, the DMC assumes the role of deployment manager. For emergencies outside of the regional footprint, the Response Officer undertakes

this role